

MATURE WOMAN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Woman's Club of Raleigh recognizes the need for continuing education; therefore, it offers several scholarships of $1000 or more for women 30 years of age or older who desire entry, re-entry, or are currently enrolled in a North Carolina college or university at the undergraduate level.

The applicant must be a resident of Raleigh. Factors to be considered are financial need, dedication to service in the community, and predicted success in a chosen field.

The applicant must submit the following:

- A completed application form.
- A written proposal for a course-of-study with a statement of goals (one page).
- Two letters of recommendation (in sealed envelopes signed by the person giving the reference). Applicant may obtain letters of recommendation from the following individuals:
 - An Educator: This may include a professor, instructor, or other academic professional who is familiar with the applicant's educational background, achievements, and dedication to her studies.
 - A Business or Professional Employer: An employer who can speak to the applicant's professional experience, work ethic, and potential for success in her chosen field.
 - A Co-worker: A colleague who can provide insight into the applicant's teamwork, reliability, and contributions in a professional setting.

Note: A letter from a friend is not acceptable.

- Items 1, 2, and 3 above should be mailed together in a 9 x 12 envelope.
- The applicant should be available for an interview with the scholarship committee at the Woman's Club Clubhouse during the month of April.

The application and all supporting materials must be postmarked by the deadline of April 3, 2026 and mailed to:
